Sonoma Proud Possessor of New Pump-Chemical Engine

MOTOR APPARATUS ARRIVES AND IS HIGHLY PRAISED AFTER DEMONSTRATION SATURDAY AFTERNOON. BUSINESS MEN'S ASSOCIATION ORDERS ENGINE PAID FOR. WILL PRESENT IT TO CITY.

Sonoma is now the proud possessor of its new Watrous fire engine, which was bought and paid for after a highly successful demonstration here last Saturday afternoon. The modern fire fighting machine responded to every test and complied with everything promised in the specifications.

Followed by a large and interested crowd of spectators, and accompanied by its guard of honor, the "Little Red Devil" from Boyes Springs, the new engine was tested out on the east side of the Plaza, and as soon as connected up with the fire hydrant at that point threw a powerful stream over the tallest buildings and trees in the vicinity. Hose was then laid from the engine along the block to the old Mission corner, and at that distance threw a fine stream which reached over the top of the historic Bear Flag pole. Tests were made at other hydrants and also in the Sebastiani tract where connection was made with the Sebastiani water supply. Those who witnessed the demonstration were highly pleased with the work done by the new engine.

Chief Cause, of the Boyes Springs department, who always advocated a combination pump and chemical engine for Sonoma, declared he was more than pleased and satisfied with the performance of the new piece of apparatus. "Quote me, if you care to," said the chief to an Index-Tribune representative. "Sonoma has a fine engine." "Mayor" Minges of Boyes, another interested spectator, was delighted that Sonoma was getting in line with the good example set by Boyes Springs for fire protection in the Sonoma valley. Mr. Minges' father was a pioneer fireman of Stockton, having driven the original San Joaquin Valley company's engine, pulled by a handsome pair of cream-colored horses in the old days.

The demonstration of the new pump and chemical was given by local mechanics who manned and operated the engine under the direction of a son of the manufacturer, who accompanied the machine from Minnesota. Messrs. Bertoli, Fochetti, Leiser and Pusby have been suggested as permanent members of the fire engine operating squad.

At the meeting of the Business Men's association Monday night the engine was formally accepted and a check drawn for its payment. A passing vote of thanks was given Messrs. W. L. Murphy, R. Emparan and E. J. Harris for collecting the funds from the people for the purchase of the apparatus. W. L. money donated by the old volunteer fire department members, who had a residue in their treasury, and with money collected from and pledged by individuals the Business Men's association were enabled to give a check for the entire purchase price of the engine.

The apparatus was insured against theft, collision and accident, W. W. Carter donating his insurance commission to the association. Messrs. Carter, Lindley and Ralph Hotz will formally present the engine to the City of Sonoma.

A dispatch of January 18th from Mare Island states:

The remains of Private Frank Bosch of the marine corps have arrived at the navy yard and will be interred at the Mare Island cemetery tomorrow afternoon with full military honors. Private Bosch died in France on November 9, 1918, and is the first of the naval heroes who died "over there" to be buried at the Mare Island cemetery. It is expected many of the marine officers and enlisted men at the barracks will attend the services.

Miss Janet Munfrey has returned from the east, having chaperoned a number of young society girls to their finishing schools on the Atlantic. Among the girls was Miss Eleanor Spreckles, daughter of Rudolph Spreckles. Miss Munfrey is a trained nurse.

Mr. and Mrs. Neal Dodge motored to San Francisco this week where they were extensively entertained by relatives and friends.

HUNTING SEASON NEARLY OVER

Hunting seasons for ducks, geese, quail and cotton tail will close on the 31st day of the present month, so the nimrods have but a few more days to follow their favorite sport. Indications are that the seasons for these birds will close with good shooting. Veteran hunters say if more heavy rains do not come, duck shooting will be better than at any other time of the present season.

ARTHUR COOPS CLAIMS BRIDE LAST SUNDAY

Weds Miss Aloha Mallard at M. E. Church in Napa. Wedding Breakfast Followed Ceremony.

Arthru Coops, prominent young orchardist of the Napa road, and a hero of the recent war overseas, claimed his sweetheart of pre-war days, Miss Aloha Mallard, at Napa, last Sunday. Miss Mallard is a charming Napa girl, and the wedding was solemnized at the M. E. church in that city. The simple but beautiful ceremony was followed by a wedding breakfast at the Hotel Brown.

The immediate families of the contracting parties were the only ones present at the church, the bride being attended by her sister, Miss Gladys Mallard, and the groom by his brother, Harry Coops. The bridal gown was a rich charmeuse in the brown tones and with it the bride wore a modish brown hat. The bridesmaid wore a voile costume in the same shades.

After the wedding festivities Mr. Coops and his bride left for their honeymoon, which is to be spent in Southern California. Upon their return they will reside on the Coops ranch. The parents of the groom who now reside there, plan to spend some time in San Francisco, and after the cherry season are planning to build themselves a handsome new home on the acreage recently purchased from the Gundlach-Bundshur Company.

There were several interesting social affairs given in honor of Mr. Coops' bride prior to the wedding, among them a shower given by Mrs. Harry Coops, who before her marriage was pretty Dorothy Dobbel.

The young groom was among the first Sonoma boys to go to war and he spent many months overseas, traveling extensively with the army over the countries where the war raged, participating in many notable engagements. Since his return from France he has been devoting himself to the cultivation of the Coops cherry orchard and vineyard, which is among the finest places in the eastern section of the Sonoma Valley.

CONTEST OF SPRINGFIELD WILL DISMISSED IN S. F.

Mrs. Mary Farrell, Executrix, Wins Over Contestants in Judge Graham's Court.

The contest instituted by relatives of the late Margaret Quinn Springfield, who died here at "The Oaks" some months ago, leaving a will of which she made Mrs. Mary Farrell executrix and Paul Weinhoff chief beneficiary, was dismissed after a two days trial in Judge Graham's court, San Francisco. The non suit was declared by the jurist after a hearing in which he declared there was nothing to sustain the allegation of undue influence or incompetency.

One of the chief witnesses was Attorney Robert A. Poppe, who drew the will. Mr. Poppe was put on the stand by the contestants but proved a good witness for the other side. He testified that he drew the will and believed Mrs. Springfield competent.

Attorney Frank Sprague's testimony was to the effect that he had been called some hours previous to execute the will, but believing the woman to be dying at that time, refused to make it. Dr. A. M. Thomson also testified for the contestants. He saw the patient during the day and said he did not believe her condition such that she could make a sound will. Mrs. Springfield lived, however, several days after making her will.

No other witnesses other than Attorney Poppe being called to testify as to Mrs. Springfield's condition at the exact time, the will was executed, Judge Graham held that his testimony was conclusive and declared a non-suit.

The suit came up in San Francisco as Mrs. Farrell, executrix of the will, had filed the document for probate in the San Francisco courts, contending that decedent was a resident of that city.

Public Administrator Frank Phillips, who took charge of Mrs. Springfield's affairs here following her death, has alleged undue influence, and promised many sensational disclosures in the case. He has been acting in the interest of the mother and sister of deceased, back east, who were cut off in the will made at Mrs. Farrell's resort. Paul Weinhoff, who was designated in the will as Mrs. Springfield's nephew, is said to have been no relation, but was a former bartender for Billy Springfield when he kept his saloon at Powell street, San Francisco.

Phillips will seek a new trial of the case through his attorney, Fred S. Howell, of Petaluma. Attorneys Arthur Nathanson, of San Francisco, and Mr. Sheridan, from the law office of Sam Shortridge defended the will.

F. Cherry, former Sonoma resident and brewery employee, died this week in San Francisco. He is survived by a widow and daughter Mary Cherry Curry.

Geo. Perazzo and family have returned to Sonoma. Mr. Perazzo had been employed with the Standard Oil Company at Richmond, but was laid off with a big force of men, the company having cut down a large number of its employees.

DOCTOR LEIX DIES IN LOS ANGELES

Former Prominent Physician of Sonoma Passed Away 14th of January

Dr. Frederick Leix, formerly a prominent practicing physician of Sonoma valley, died in Los Angeles on the 14th and was buried in that city under the aspices of the Masonic Lodge. He is survived by his widow, Francis Leix, and young son, Frederick, Jr.

After leaving Sonoma, where he had a big practice, the doctor and his family went to Europe, where they traveled extensively. The doctor took post graduate work in noted universities. Upon his return to America he established himself at Los Angeles, where he has prospered. His death must have been rather sudden. Louis Brown, former Sonoma boy, had consulted him professionally just two weeks ago and commented on his apparent good health and his courtesy. It was through a letter from Brown that Sonoma friends learned of the death of the well known physician.

MRS. GILBERT GRANTED DIVORCE

Mrs. Maida Gilbert was granted a divorce decree Monday, January 17th, by Judge Seawell, from Charles L. Gilbert, of Oakland, on grounds of extreme cruelty. Mrs. Gilbert was given custody of the minor son, Kennon Gilbert. The court made an order that the defendant pay the sum of $10 per month toward the support and education of the son.

Mrs. Gilbert and the boy have been making their home at the Rufus ranch

DEATH OF FORMER SONOMA GIRL

Mrs. Benjamin, of Eldridge, was called to Los Angeles the first of the week by the death of her only daughter, Marion, who died suddenly in that city. The death is particularly sad as the young woman was a bride of a few weeks and had gone south on her honeymoon. She was married to a young man, an employee of the Westinghouse Electric company.

Deceased is a graduate of the Sonoma High School, and after leaving here graduated as a trained nurse. Sonoma friends were much grieved to hear of her untimely death, particulars of which have not as yet been learned.

SONOMA VALLEY HAS RECORD RAINFALL

A rainfall totaling 25.42 inches is reported by Rain Gager Gale of the S. P., and breaks all recent year records for this time of the season. 3.62 inches of rain fell here between Sunday night and Monday. The valley was inundated in many places, and the creeks running bank full, the first time in several years past.

Napa Street Real Estate Changes Hands This Week

IMPORTANT DEAL CONSUMMATED WHEREBY AL GRIFFITH BUYS OLD LIVERY STABLE PROPERTY. OTHER ACTIVITIES SHOW MAIN BUSINESS STREET FRONTAGE IN DEMAND.

The first month of the new year has been marked by a sharp demand for Napa street realty and the consummation of a big deal this week whereby Albert Griffith, the retired orchardist and capitalist, purchases from Granville S. Harris the old livery stable property on the corner of Napa and First street West. The lot has a frontage of 165 feet on Napa street and a depth of 150 feet. Mr. Griffith plans to improve the property with a modern concrete and fire proof building, the main structure to be used as an up-to-date garage by his son, Stephen Griffith. Young Griffith and Pete Boccoli, Jr. will go into the automobile business.

The buyer of the famous old livery stable, which had been owned by Granville Harris for thirty years, declares he will erect a modern building that the community can well be proud of. He says he does not believe in letting dollars rust and has therefore decided to help improve Sonoma.

The erection of the Griffith block will be a splendid improvement to the main business thoroughfare of the town. It will cover the entire frontage from the corner to and including the Manuel blacksmith shop.

The adjoining lot was purchased from A. Beretta last week by the has been the lessee of the garage.

owners of the Sonoma Index-Tribune who plan to some day put up a fire proof building as the permanent home of the newspaper.

That Napa street frontage is in decided demand is further shown by the plan of Jack Picetti to improve his property adjoining the Maffei Block for Stanley A. Robinson's vulcanizing shop. Mr. Robinson's business has grown so that he needs more room. He is at present with Ye Electric Shop.

The passing of the old livery stable will not be without regret to many of the old guard. It has been the rendezvous of many congenial crowds, including the promotors of many of Sonoma's still famous racing events. The building was originally used as the roundhouse of the Northwestern railroad, and when it was abandoned it was purchased by Granville Harris and moved onto the lot he had purchased from the Vasquez estate. When Harris sold his livery business to Joe Ryan it continued to be a busy corner for many years, but recently the stable wa transformed into a garage and t old crowd has gradually drift away. Of late the patrons hav been the busy, keep-moving motorists from near and far. Lloyd Hotz has been the lessee of the garage.

Mrs. A. B. Williams and Mrs. Eliza Shepard of Glen Ellen, who represented the Relief Corps at the Fresno convention, returned home last Sunday from the south.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Andrews of El Verano were among the holiday visitors to Los Angeles. They visited their daughter, May, and their new grandchild, and had a pleasant trip.

LOCAL CIVIC ORGANIZATION WRITES ACHIEVEMENT AFTER NAME

The Sonoma Business Men's association wins honors as a local civic organization for writing achievement after its name and has started 1921 right by carrying to a successful termination the drive for a fire engine. In this laudable undertaking they found ready and hearty co-operation on the part of the people, both in and outside of town. As a result $3800 was collected for the purchase of the modern fire fighting apparatus, and the organization has the unique distinction of presenting the new engine to our city.

It is customary for municipalities to finance such necessary projects as the acquiring of fire apparatus, but Sonoma, slow to see its way clear to spend the money for a modern chemical and pump equipment, found itself badly burdened with other indebtedness for modern streets and sewers, and could not possibly have given the people proper and long-needed fire protection at this time. It was thus that sentiment which has been crystallizing for months past voiced itself through the Business Men's association, showing the value of an organization for just such emergencies. Without the organization the whole idea would have probably gone a-glimmering or been shelved with other treasured ambitions of our people. The new civic body was quick to act, appointed committees to attend to necessary preliminaries and to solicit funds. The result is the splendid engine demonstrated here Saturday last and bought and paid for in cash at Monday night's meeting of the association.

It was not all consummated without ups and downs, but the difficulties were lost sight of and overcome for the sake of the ultimate end, the acquirement of necessary fire protection for the home town. It was in the overcoming of obstacles that the organization proved its real fibre and demonstrated that for the good of the community it would rise above temporary setbacks, close its ear to all reactionary criticism and continue to boost and forge ahead. This is the spirit of the united, enduring organization which can really benefit its community.

Now that the Sonoma Business Men's association has written achievement after its name, may it continue to prosper and live up to its first splendid accomplishment. May it grow in strength and numbers and foster all worthy projects which will advance the interest and welfare of our city.

CALIFORNIA INVITATION DAY FEB. 14TH

What nicer valentine for our eastern friends than a letter written on Feb. 14th, "California Invitation Day" (for so it has been designated by the governor's proclamation) inviting those from the east, north and south to the west—to sunny California? Suppose we write a letter something like this:

Dear Friends:

We mortals live but once. Why not spend your days in the most beautiful and alluring country in the world, in beautiful California, where health and plenty await you. Our acreage is broad and fertile, and a hearty welcome awaits all those who come to settle here, and co-operate in the upbuilding of what we believe is destined to be the greatest land under the sun. Whether you bring a helping hand or a helping dollar, you will be made one of us. We Californians have a reputation for being mighty proud of ourselves, but you will soon see that it is all justifiable when you enter our portals and behold our Golden State, sunny California—golden because it is rich in opportunity for health, wealth and happiness—sunny because of the spirit which prevails, the spirit which harkens back to the "Splendid Idle Forties," and has been ringing down the years, resounding through the valleys, re-echoing through our mountains until today it is the dominant note, and bids all welcome to live among us.

Think of the great Pacific Ocean which laves our shores; look at its broad expanse and treasure-laden ships. Then dream of the empire which awaits you.

Picture the lofty pines and majestic redwoods, the marvel in Yosemite, the streams and the waterfalls which abound in our mountains, the green hills and meadows of mid-winter, the robin and meadow lark, harbingers of early spring, blossoms and flowers from Auburn to San Diego, memories, romance and educational opportunities—they are all here to be yours for the coming. Find out what it means to really live. Come to California for a month at least. Come to stay if possible. Hospitality is the watchword of communities in our state. Be sure you will find no welcome more cordial than the one awaiting you here in Sonoma, "Valley of the Moon."

How would it have looked to have had a public defender in our gangster cases? And yet, there is a bill before the Legislature to create the job.

In this important period of readjustment of prices the man and woman who read the ads in the newspapers are sure to get the most for a dollar. Merchants are sending their messages of new prices to the public through the advertising columns, and it pays to read and be informed.

And now the reformer is telling President-elect Harding that he must not smoke. Perhaps there will be a new declarationof independence.

We had rather see tobacco juice on a man's chin than a grape juice badge on his chest. The meddler is an undesirable citizen.

The latest wrinkle at Sacramento is a bill giving the Highway Commission power and means to construct, maintain and control landing fields throughout the state for aviators. Perhaps the Highway Commission might find it smooth sailing, but the taxpayers will feel more like landing on the necks of the senators and assemblymen if they vote for such a measure. We have enough trouble and expense with our highways without taking care of our bird-men.

We feel that Sonoma is rightfully to have the proud distinction of having its distinguished founder, General Vallejo, among the notables in the National Hall of Statuary. A bill has been introduced at Sacramento asking the Legislature to select and designate two illustrious deceased persons whose statues in marble or bronze shall be provided and furnished by the state. General Vallejo and Father Serra have been suggested.

Pruning has become such a popular pastime with legislators that they are introducing bills to cut out hip pockets from our pants. First thing you know they'll be cutting out pants, and then having got down to bare necessities, perhaps they'll discover that vest pocket editions of "hootch" are fashionable.

SIXTY SIERRA CLUB MEMBERS ON HIKE IN VALLEY OF MOON

Sixty members of the famous Sierra club came up to Agua Caliente Springs hotel last Saturday evening to spend the week-end on a hike through our "Valley of the Moon." After a delightful social evening at the hotel, the club members started out bright and early Sunday morning for Glen Ellen and the London ranch. They visited the grave of the famous author, where his ashes repose in a beauteous and sightly spot on the ranch, and also made a pilgrimage to the study in the house where London wrote many of his masterpieces.

In the midst of their interesting journeying about the ranch the hikers were overtaken by rain, but were hospitably rescued by Mrs. Eliza Shepherd, sister of Jack London, who threw open her bungalow home to the pilgrims and entertained them charmingly.

Mrs. London invited a few old friends of her late husband to lunch with her at the London cottage, while the remainder of the party spread their lunches in the Shepherd home and had a jolly informal hour around the big cheery fireplace there.

TO GO INTO BUTCHER BUSINESS

Harold Prestwood, former employee of the Sonoma Index-Tribune, has decided to accept a job in San Francisco with his brother, Rodney, who is interested in a butcher shop on Fillmore street. Harold will drive the delivery truck, and if he likes the business the brothers may eventually take over the shop. It is in the Arcade building in the Fillmore shopping district.

Mr. H. F. Cross, an experienced printer and former editor, has been placed in charge of the mechanical department of the Index.

E. A. WAGNER OF BOYES SPRINGS LOSES BELOVED PARENT

Ernest A. Wagner, the Boyes Springs merchant, was called to Berkeley the first of the week to attend the funeral of his father, an old pioneer of the state who passed away in the college town at the advanced age of 85 years. The Berkeley Gazette had the following account of the death of Mr. Wagner, long prominent in the business world of the Pacific coast:

"Peter Adam Wagner, early pioneer of California and resident of this city for the last thirty-two years, passed away yesterday at his home, 1309 Arch street, following an illness of ten days.

Wagner, a native of Alsace-Lorraine, was in his 85th year. He came to New York when fourteen years of age, and when he was twenty-one years old he came to the Pacific coast. Since that time he has led a busy life, being engaged in mining and in manufacturing.

Shortly after coming west he opened a hardware store in Virginia City and was later engaged in the same business in White Pine Hamilton, Nevada. After six years he lost his stock by fire and re-established himself then with great difficulty, freighting his goods from San Francisco to Sacramento and across to Nevada.

He was later engaged in mercantile business in Carson City, Nev., when an epidemic of diphtheria took the four older sons in the family. Stricken with grief, he disposed of his interests there and came to San Francisco. In that city he was in the wholesale grocery business, established the California Perforated Screen Company and was president of the Pacific Mail Works. He was also associated with the Judson Manufacturing Company at Emeryville, and at the time of his death was connected with the Central Alaskan Fisheries Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Wagner celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary three years ago. Wagner was a member of Durant Lodge No. 268 F. and A. M. and Scottish Rite Bodies.

Wagner is survived by his widow, Mrs. Emilie Wagner, four children, seven grand children and six great grand children. His children are Ernest A. Wagner of Boyes Springs, Albert C. Wagner of Oakland, Mrs. Winfield S. Schmidt of this city and Mrs. Pearl W. Hamilton of Stockton.

Funeral services were under the auspices of the Masons at the Masonic Temple in Berkeley.

ACCIDENT ON THE STAGE GULCH ROAD

Taking the wrong road while returning from Eldridge, John Buzzini, employed by Joe Perry of East Petaluma, escaped death when the four horse team which he was driving, went off the grade on the Stage Gulch road. Buzzini tried to guide the team but was unsuccessful, and realizing that if he remained on the seat seat of the wagon he would be injured, he jumped just as the team went over the 12 foot grade.

The wagon, loaded with scrapers and other machinery, was upset. The horses escaped severe injury. The driver sent word to Perry, who later arrived at the scene and broughtthe workman back to town

P. Angove, who was taken quite ill after Christmas with a severe attack of bronchitis, is now convalescent, although he was confined to his bed for three weeks past.

JOSEPH GRACE NOW OFFICER OF S. R. BANK OF ITALY

Sonoma Valley friends of the Grace brothers, who have a big ranch here, were pleased to hear the news that Joseph Grace had been named manager and vice president of the Santa Rosa branch of the Bank of Italy, and that Frank Grace, ex-sheriff of Sonoma county, had been named on the board of directors.

Joseph Grace and his brother are among the wealthiest and largest property owners in Sonoma county, and their connection with the Bank of Italy cannot help but strengthen the prestige of that institution in this locality. While Joe Grace is not a practical banker, he is to familiarize himself with the business and will actively engage in it following a trip east.

After Ex-sheriff Frank Grace got out of politics, he and his brother went into the hop, farming and dairy business. They had made a lot of money in their brewery at Santa Rosa and were most fortunate in their investments. Among their good deals was the purchase of the former Wickersham ranch in Sonoma Valley, one time looked at by the state for the Agricultural Farm, subsequently established at Davis. This ranch they divided, selling a portion of it to Mrs. Lolita Schweitzer, of San Francisco, for enough to compensate them for the original cost of the entire acreage. In other parts of the county they also made profitable buys of big properties.

Glen Murdock, former Sonoma school teacher, who lately became county treasurer and then manager of the bank absorbed by the Bank of Italy, will be Mr. Joseph Grace's assistant. Joseph Migliavacca, who has been supervising vice president of the Santa Rosa branch of the Bank of Italy, will now devote his entire time to the Napa business..

POULTRY SUITS HELD UP PENDING APPEAL

Court actions by the Poultry Producers of Central California against Peter Hansen, J. R. Johnson and James Folk, involving the alleged failure of defendants to live up to the membership contracts, all of which had been set for various dates in February, were ordered stricken from the calendar Monday by Judge Thompson and will be reset on motion after the appeals now pending in the Shields case from Sacramento is decided in the Appellate Court.

The recent decision of Judge Denny against the Poultry Producers will also hinge on the Appellate Court's ruling.

TRAVELERS UNNERVED BY ACCIDENTS TO STEAMERS

A report has been filed with the Southern Pacific officials by the crew of the steamer El Capitan that while the boat was on her way to Vallejo Junction Saturday afternoon it had a narrow escape from a collision with a torpedo boat destroyer. The heavy fog that hung over the bay at the time was responsible for the near collision. Several of the women passengers on the El Capitan fainted when they saw the destroyer approach bow-on, while others rushed for life preservers.

The Rodeo-Vallejo ferry slip at Rodeo was badly damaged when the new steamer A. J. Harford struck the landing place in such a manner as to break several piles and do other damage to the slip and apron. No one was injured. The accident was caused by the strong tide which was running at the time.

CHECK PASSER PROMINENT IN MARIN COUNTY

Hugh A. Boyle, member of a pioneer Marin county family and himself owner of hundreds of acres of land on Tiburon Peninsula, was arrested Saturday night in Sonoma City on a warrant charging him with having issued a worthless check for $280.

He was brought here Tuesday by officers and secured his release on bonds approved by Justice of the Peace De La Montanya. The check was forwarded to the Mill Valley Bank for collection, and as Boyle had no account there, it was returned marked "not sufficient funds." Boyle is well known here and highly respected. His friends are of the opinion that his trouble is due to an unintentional error on his part.—Marin County Journal.

PETITION FOR LETTERS

Petitions for letters of administration in the estate of Hannah Rashel Larsen, a minor, who died January 4, 1921, were filed in the superior court Tuesday by L. O. Larsen, her father and guardian. First and final accounts of his guardianship were filed also.

The estate of the young girl amounts to about $400, consisting of an undivided fourth interest in a lot in Sonoma warth $225, and deposits in a bank amounting to $165. In addition there is personal property. Attorney R. A. Poppe is representing the petitioner.

Attorney Frank Sprague spent several days in San Francisco and suburbs the fore part of the week.

POULTRY EXPERT SAYS IT COST $4.92 TO KEEP EACH HEN IN 1920

At a meeting of the Petaluma Poultry Keepers' association Friday of last week the following interesting report was made by President S. S. Knight of the organization:

"The year which has just passed, (1920) established many new records in the poultry business, Petaluma's shipments of eggs increased nearly 28 per cent. (twenty-two and a quarter million dozen, approximately) over those of her previous banner year (1919) while her shipments of poultry increased almost 52 per cent. (240,000 dozen approximately) over those of 1919. This means that Petaluma's egg production has doubled within the last five years.

AVERAGE INCOME PER HEN

Our local poultrymen received on an average for all the eggs which they shipped during the year a net price of about 50 1-2eper dozen, or 1 1-4c per dozen more than in 1919. The average income per hen from eggs alone was $5.56, or 64c more than in 1919, due to the fact that the highest egg yield ever known in this district was had last year, as well as the highest price per dozen. This high production per hen was no doubt due to the campaign of education carried on by the Farm Bureau and the demonstrations held under its auspices of proper culling, feeding, housing and brooding methods.

MAINTENANCE COST PER HEN

"The cost to feed a hen annually rose to $3.55, being an increase of 70c over the previous year, which was itself a high record. Labor, taxes, insurance and depreciation amounted to 60c per hen kept; replacement cost per hen kept was 85c, both being new highrecords. The total cost of keeping a laying hen for the year 1920 upon the average successful poultry ranch in this district was $4.92, an increase of 74 c over the previous year.

GROSS INCOME PER HEN

"California exported over 1000 carloads of eggs during 1920, notwithstanding the fact that in 1914 she was importing large quantities of eggs (nearly 300 cars) from the middle west. Eggs reached the highest wholesale price ever known in San Francisco in November, of 94c per dozen, while in the New York City market likewise peaked at $1.15 for Petaluma Extras and nearby white eggs.

NATIONAL PRODUCTION LESS

The egg production of the United States, regardless of largely increased production on the Pacific coast, showed considerable contraction in 1920. The receipts in New York City as reported by the Mercantile Exchange, were practically six hundred thousand cases short during the last ten months of the year, as compared with 1919.

"The cold storage holdings of eggs upon the last day of 1920 were over 1,100,000 cases short of the same date of the previous year. Regardless of all this, it is predicted that the actual value of last year's poultry crop in the United States will be as great, if not larger, than in 1919, which was over a billion and a quarter dollars."

The Eaton bungalow at Sonoma Vista has been sold to Mrs. Kocher, of San Francisco.

The recent membership campaign of the Sonoma County Farm bureau has brought the membership in the bureau to at least 1250, it was announced Saturday in a report issued by Farm Adviser Wineland.

Rev. Henry Waltz, formerly pastor of the Sonoma Methodist church, but now in charge of the Livermore pastorate, was in town Wednesday on business. Mr. Waltz was for a time associated with his son in newspaper work on the Lemoor Advance.

Mrs. Bernice Sholden and children have returned to their home in Fruitvale after visiting at the J. B. Small home last week.

ROAD COMMITTEE MAKES GOOD START. KEEP IT UP

Prompt action has characterized the appointment last Tuesday of the good roads committee of the Santa Rosa Chamber of Commerce and work has begun on the necessary steps for an early realization of the long dreamed-of road to Napa via Sonoma and the Rincon valley.

IMPORTANT TO COUNTY

At a meeting at noon Monday in the Occidental Hotel dining room, committee analyzed its task as one of the greatest economic importance to the entire county, since the road is now a bar to easy automobile traffic from all eastern points to Sonoma county. As a consequence all of the county and the northwest section of the state is vitally interested in this improvement.

SUPERVISORS CO-OPERATE

Arrangements have been made with the entire membership of the board of supervisors, together with representatives from the Business Men's association at Sonoma for a conference with the state highway commissioners at San Francisco in the next few days. An effort will be made to enlist the co-operation of civic commercial organizations at Healdsburg, Sebastopol and Petaluma, since all of them are as greatly interested in the improvement of this stretch of miserable dirt road as any other part of the county.

OUTLET FOR FARM PRODUCE

At a meeting following Monday's luncheon, in the board of supervisors' offices during the afternoon, facts were presented showing that a tremendous tonnage of Sonoma county produce consisting of apples, grapes and berries and other fruits, has been shipped over this difficult road during the last season, and that with its improvement, the movement of Sonoma county crops into the markets of the Sacramento valley would be greatly facilitated in every way.

SACRAMENTO CONFERENCE

The committee of the chamber of commerce will arrange to meet with the state highway commissioners and other state officers, and with Senator Herbert W. Slater and Assemblymen Stevens and Fulwider prior to the end of the first half of the legislative session, if possible, and present the arguments in favor of immediate attention to this important highway link. Co-operation with the Mendocino and Humboldt counties legislators also will be enlisted.

Arrangements were made Monday with the board of supervisors for the appointment of Supervisor W. L. Cunningham of Kenwood, who will see Engineer Clark of the state highway commission and arrange for a meeting with the committee and board of supervisors on this subject.

NEW PARISH HOUSE FOR ST FRANCIS' PASTOR

At an enthusiastic meeting of members of St. Francis church Friday night of last week some splendid pledges were signed to erect a new parish house here. Over $1900 was subscribed by those present. It is planned to replace the old cottage which has long done service for the resident pastor of St. Francis with a commodious and modern bungalow. The improvement will be under the supervision of the Archbishop.

The parish under Rev. J. F. Byrne is in a thriving condition and the parishoners and also friends of the church are anxious to aid in the improvement of the property whereby the priest will have a comfortable and convenient residence. It is hoped to start work on the improvement in the spring.

WILL TRAIN FOR NURSE

Miss Delia Marmori has resigned her position at the Hoover candy store in San Rafael, where she has been employed for the past four years, and will enter St. Luke's hospital to train for a nurse. In taking up the profession the young lady is fulfilling an ambition she has long cherished. She is home for a visit with her folks for a few weeks prior to starting her work at the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Goepfort, (Lily Bulotti) have moved from San Francisco to Fresno, where they are now making their home.

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

The Ford Sedan, with electric self-starting and lighting system and demountable rims with 3½-inch tires front and rear, for every day in the year has no equal as a family car. Just as popular on the farm as it is in the city. In fact, it fits the family demands in every vocation of life. Large, roomy seats, finely upholstered, plate glass windows make it an open car in pleasant weather, while in rainy and inclement weather it becomes a closed car, dust-proof and rain-proof. It is not only comfortable, but really cozy, and above all, economical in operation and maintenance, and has all the Ford merits of strength and durability.

ITEMS FROM VINEBURG

Mrs. D. Bancheiro and son, Henry, accompanied by Mrs. Charles Bancheiro, all well known residents of Napa, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Batto on Sunday.

A bright young Native Daughter arrived in Vineburg last Saturday and registered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Rouquie. The little lady seems perfectly pleased, and intends to make peaceful Vineburg her home. Mr. and Mrs. Rouquie are just delighted with their new little guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Weinberger, accompanied by their charming young daughters, Misses Flora and Marion, departed on Wednesday last for Los Angeles to reside. The numerous friends of this estimable family will surely miss them, and all join in wishing them success and happiness in their new home.

The contined inclement weather is somewhat retarding the farm and orchard work in this vicinity.

Mr. H. H. Johnson, of Glen Ellen, is still retained as conductor of our freight train, much to the satisfaction of the shippers on this branch of the N.W.P. Mr. Johnson has earned the respect and esteem in which he is held by all.

Fred Batto transacted business in the metropolis Friday.

This section of the valley was well represented at the last receptfon of the Daughters of Pocahontas at San Rafael, a large delegation attending, all of whom report a delightful time.

Vineburg will be perfectly safe in case the U.S. will engage in a war with Japan, for we find the following article:

Organized: The Winchester Junior Rifle Corps, of East Vineburg, members all under 18 years. Officers: Alex Stornetti, range officer; Louis Beers, supervisor; Edmund Beers, assistant; Fred Lowell, instructor; Charles Stornetti, social manager.

THE VALUE TO CALIFORNIA OF WELL WRITTEN BOOKS

Very few men and women add to the "seeing eye" the gift of telling what they have seen. True descriptive power is a rare and a precious gift. Dana had it, and therefore his "Two Years Before the Mast" remains a classic. Charles Nordhoff had it, and so has Lummis of Los Angeles, whose "Right Hand of the Continent" is worth study. Muir, LeConte, Theodore Hittell and many others have helped to make readers, the world over, want to see California for themselves.

To this great company we must now add Dr. John T. Faris, who once lived in San Francisco, and whose earlier travel books, such as "Old Roads of Philadelphia" and "On the Trail of the Pioneers" have given him a reputation for solid literary work. He has now written and the Lippincotts have published a stately but not solemn volume on "Seeing Far West," which begins at the summit of Pike's, ends with a chapter on western highways such as "El Camino Sierra," "Tioga," "Oak Flat," and other road marvels, and contains between these extremes dozens of pages about our forests, parks, mountains, lakes, resources and people.

One would be glad to quote on a large scale from this book which is so admirably done, so completely without the guide book and poster tang and yet so full of information given with that joyous enthusiasm which Dr. Faris always possesses. The publishers have helped make the book a "household treasure" by giving it fine maps and no less than 113 illustrations: but after all the main thing is the remarkable way in which the author carries the reader along with him. He is another Bayard Taylor, another Ross Browne, and his book is certain to have a wide sale, not only now but for years to come.

Among the chapters which are sure to be most often read and re-read are three: "The Summit of the World," "In the Heart of the Sierras," and "In the Mount Shasta Country," which last begins with a priceless bit from old Peter Skene Ogden's fur trader diary of 1827.

BIG SEED COMPANY NOW DISTRIBUTING NEW CATALOG

Aggler & Musser Seed Company of Los Angeles Issues 28th Annual Book—Finest Yet Published

California's largest Seed Company is now distributing its 1921 seed catalog. The Big Annual exceeds all previous issues and is claimed to be a complete course in agriculture, comprising 112 pages, containing several hundred illustrations, while over one thousand questions are answered. The book is most interesting, entertaining and instructive. In reality it is several books in one, for it includes the important "Garden Manual."

There is something of interest to the Home Seeker, Stockman, Dairyman, Rancher, Orchardist, Poultryman and Gardener, for there are departments on Home, School, Field and Demonstration Garden Work, More and Better Potatoes., Correct Tools and Implements to use for best results, also marketing notes on each subject, telling how, where and when to market Hints on poultry, spraying, fertilizing and the use of insecticides are given.

The Aggler & Musser Seed Company is mailing the Annual to every section of this country and to foreign points, and readers of this newspaper may secure copies and be placed on the regular mailing list without any expense by writing the Aggler & Musser Seed Company, 620 South Spring Street, Los Angeles, California.—Adv. 1-22-2t

PETALUMA PRAISES OUR NEW FIRE ENGINE

Sonoma's new auto fire engine was delivered last Friday to the great delight of the residents and was given its official test this afternoon. It is a pretty little machine and was purchased at a cost of $3800, the money being raised by popular subscription and is amply adequate for a city the size of Sonoma and will be a splendid improvement over the old hand-drawn and operated apparatus.

The new machine is a Watrous equipment mounted on a Ford chassis and is well equipped and nicely finished.

If the Watrous pump is as good as the old one-cylinder Watrous pump borrowed by Petaluma from Sebastopol before the city's new equipment was purchased one dry summer and which saved the city from fire and the streets from destruction, the people of Sonoma will never regret having made the purchase.—Petaluma Argus.
